OUT ON THE LIMB with George Vierhus

"POOR FISH", that slang expression that has been around for all these years becomes more meaningful now because of the recent action of the Catholic hierarchy which lifts the long-standing ban of meat on Friday for those of the Catholic faith.

We note that there has been some moaning on the part of those eating places that cater with their menus to fish-eaters on Friday. The more optimistic eateries, however, seem to think that the new ruling may sort of even things off a bit during the week and there will be as much or more fish consumed as before after a leveling off period.

Although we have been a 'fisheater' or "mackerel-snapper" of long and fairly good (we hope) standing, the lifting of the Friday ban was not greeted with any enthusiastic cheers on our part.

Our feelings on the matter were quite somber ones.

We are even going to miss our habitual searching of the entree lists on our night out (Friday) for the fish of our choice while others at the table blithely were selecting whatever their appetite craved.

And no longer will it be necessary at those Friday luncheon or dinner meetings to remember what day it is when the waitress mentions 'lobster or steak'. We are going to miss that, too, in a way.

THIS UNLIMITED choice of the entree list on Fridays is going to take some getting used to on our part. We know we will have to work at it for a time before the strangeness wears off.

On the credit side, we recognize that it will make it easier for hostesses to prepare Friday night dinners when they don't have to worry about any "fish-eaters" in the crowd.

On the other hand, we doubt very much that we will change our habit of picking fish when we are out for dinner on Friday night.

Or, for that matter, any other night.

You see, fish happens to be a gastronomical favorite of ours.

SPEAKING OF FISH, it so happens that "holy mackerel" is one of our favorite expressions for registering surprise, astonishment, admiration or amazement.

We doubt very much that we will change it, even in light of the new ruling. It covers most situations pretty well.

Take for example at the post office recently when we ran across the Rev. Ben Gould of the First Methodist Church, and the Rev. Anthony Myers, of the Congregational Church, huddled in deep conversation.

We couldn't think of a better greeting than: 'Holy Mackerel! what's

H.S. district leases store building

Nelson brothers here since 1931, begin 'close-out'

THEN: Milt and Clarence Nelson and their store in 1943

NOW: After 23 years in same location, the brothers bow out

Downtown Campbell Ave., which has been undergoing a gradual change in character during the past decade, is losing a pioneer retail establishment of the community but is gaining a service center for the Campbell Union High School District.

Laurance J. Hill, superintendent of the high school district, announced this week that the district plans to lease the store building owned by Clarence and Milton Nelson at 275 E. Campbell Ave. at 2nd St. and which has housed their business since 1937.

The proposed lease is for three years and is expected to go into effect in January, 1967 when the Nelson brothers have disposed of their stock of hardware, garden supplies and feed.

According to Hill, the 6000 square-foot building will house the visual aid department of the district, including its service and library services; the district's faculty curriculum library and the typewriter service department.

Plans also call for warehousing cafeteria supplies in the building with an office for the district cafeteria supervisor. It is estimated that approximately eight people will operate from the location.

Hill said that leasing the store building, will allow for the consolidating of the various services that are now scattered throughout

City councilmen approve salaries

Campbell city councilmen will begin drawing salaries of $150 per month starting in January, as a result of an ordinance that was adopted Monday night by a 4-1 vote.

The lone negative vote was cast by Councilman Ed Rogers.

He said he agreed with the principle involved and conceded that the city's fiscal picture was favorable.

But he questioned the legal opinions of the attorney general, City Attorney Joe Bonacina and the counsel for the League of California Cities which approved the legality of the council's action.

Under recent state legislation, city councils can now adopt ordinances setting their own salaries. The attorney general has ruled also that such action is not in conflict with any other statutes because of wartime conditions now in effect.

The proposed ordinance, modeled after similar ones adopted by many other cities, has also been ruled "legal" by the League of Cities counsel to whom it had been submitted at the council's request after the "first reading" at a previous meeting.

The "no" vote of Rogers caught the other council members by surprise and he was subjected to questioning for his stand by other councilmen who expected an unanimous vote.

Councilman Homer Hyde, prior to the adoption, specifying he had no quarrel with the principle involved, had questioned the timing and how it would affect the city's fiscal position.

But Hyde, however, voted in favor of the ordinance, after City Manager Bob Stephens made a comprehensive report on the city's fiscal position.

Stephens said that necessary funds for salary adjustments, including the councilmen's monthly stipend, had been budgeted and that the city was in better financial position at the present time than had been contemplated at budget time last July.

When questioned by his fellow councilmen for the basis of his negative vote, Rogers said "his profession (college professor) questioned everything".

Hyde answered that the city's legal authority had approved the ordinance and he felt that the city attorney was the council's safeguard in such legal

Campbell stands firm on expressway policy

Santa Clara County's ambitious but controversial expressway program for Phase II which calls for a $114 million bond issue next spring, is having trouble getting by the road blocks set up by cities dissatisfied with the overall policy as well as proposed projects.

Even suggested compromises don't seem to be getting through. That was indicated Monday night when Campbell's City Council voted to stand firm on this city's original position.

Campbell claims that funds from the county-wide bond issue should be distributed equally among the cities of the county without differentiating between "expressway" and "non-expressway" cities.

In the controversial Phase I program adopted in 1961, to gain support of cities without expressways a 70%-30% formula was devised. By this method "non-expressway cities" would receive 70% of their proportion of assessed valuation to improve their own streets, with 30% going for expressways.

Campbell contends that this is unfair to cities with expressways, as the entire county was supposedly benefitted by the roads and not the individual cities.

Subsequently, Campbell has gained a few allies. A 50-50 com-

The candidates represent a cross-section of the entire community, including representatives from church, school, and professions as well as business and industry.

City planners approve signs, poodle salon, pancake house

Three signs for business establishments in town won quick approval of the Planning Commission last week. At the same meeting, the commission also approved a use permit for a poodle salon and okayed the plans for a pancake house and a storage yard without much discussion.

But a prolonged discussion took place over a proposed text amendment to the city's code that would eliminate residential uses in C-1-S (commercial) zones.

Commissioner Thayer Lyons, a veteran commission member, explained that the intent of the amendment was to close the gap that had unintentionally been left open when the city revised its zoning ordinances.

Planning Director Dick Hogan, added that experience had shown that where there was residential and commercial uses in the same zones that problems often resulted.

Commissioner Mel Young argued, however, that Campbell seemed to be getting too many vacant lots not large enough to build

School district changes offices

Changes in location of important offices of the Campbell Union High School District, together with new phone numbers, has been announced to Laurance J. Hill, district superintendent.

The old "White House" at 1495 Winchester Blvd. is being abandoned and will be razed during the Christmas vacation, Hill said. Offices formerly located in those quarters will now be at 124 Latimer Ave., Campbell.

These offices and officials, together with their new phone numbers, include:

Director of Vocational Education, Mel Estrada, and Director of Extended Education, Dr. Ted Norby, both 379-1087.

Supervisor of Compensatory Education, Mark Guerra, 379-0553.

Adult Education, Ed Stanley, 379-0816.

At the risk of being boresome, we again submit that all of us should give some thought to what we desire the Campbell Ave. of the future to be.

We have suggested in previous editorials that the stretch of Campbell Ave. from Winchester to Bascom could be developed into an attractive "Gateway to Campbell" of the future.

Such an idea would envision a much wider street than it is today. There would be no gangling power poles as utilities would be placed underground. Modern electroliers and trees would also add to the overall attractiveness.

We hastily admit that such an idea is merely a dream. We realize, of course, that it will cost a great deal of money to reach the ultimate in design. And we are not sure even in our own mind that the "gateway" would be worth the expense.

Yet we sincerely feel that the improvement of Campbell Ave. is a "must".

The question is how extensive should be these improvements.

It is anticipated that plans for the improvement of Campbell Ave. in some manner will soon be presented for City Council approval.

There apparently is no justification for improving the street with taxpayers money, if the only objective is to make the throughfare more accessible for shopping convenience.

Downtown Campbell Ave. suffers in comparison with other shopping areas within the city limits.

But our point is a simple one.

If the people of the entire community feel that a "gateway" to their community is important for a link that serves as a connecting link to all areas, then we feel that considerable thought should be given to improving Campbell Ave. to the ultimate.

At least any improvement that is made to the street now should take into consideration what the street could be in the future.

Why no lights

As you are probably aware, no Christmas decorations will grace downtown Campbell this season.

We know there will be many who will be extremely critical of this lack of Christmas spirit or display in the "downtown" area.

Unfortunately these critics are unaware of the economics of the situation.

The decorations that have been used for the past five years are far from being in good condition. The decorations, incidentally, were purchased by the business people of the area five years ago and, at that time, they were approximately 10 years old. The cost to the business people exceeded $3000.

It was estimated that less than half of the strings that were purchased in 1961 would be usable this season.

Although the city has always installed and taken down the decorations (at an estimated man hour charge annually of $1200), the cost of electricity and other incidentals in the past has been borne by the various business houses in the area.

This cost has run as high as $500 per season. Last year only $155 was raised from business people in the areas involved to help defray the expense. It was extremely doubtful, is any more than that could have been raised this year which would necessitate, as has been the case in the past, for the C. of C. or the city to pick up the balance.

The question then was whether it was worth it.

The C. of C. directors felt that the time, money and effort that would be expended to put the aged strings in place this year could not be justified, for the "downtown" Campbell Ave. of today, unfortunately, appears to be in no position to underwrite the costs.

And business people in the other shopping areas who are members of the C. of C., naturally, are more concerned with "dressing up" their own centers than helping out on Campbell Ave.

But we think this lack of decorations this year may serve a very useful purpose in a sort of negative way.

It focuses the attention of the community on a street long badly in need of improvement. Second-hand Christmas decorations would not help improve the situation to any degree, in our opinion.

We feel certain, however, that should the street be improved, following some of the suggestions that have been made, then Campbell Ave. could really become the "gateway to Campbell" and as such the entire community would take pride in "dressing it up" for the Christmas season.

We do think, however, that some of the stately evergreens (the Blaine tree, for example, in Campbell park and those at West Valley College or at the high school) could be festooned with Christmas lights.

Such a project could be presented on a community-wide basis.

Perhaps enough financial contributions could be collected to do a top-notch job, even at this late in the game.

It might be worth a try anyway.

commercially or industrially and that, in his opinion, commercial uses are compatible to high density residential.

Chairman Hal Lee said he felt that, if the amendment was adopted, there would be no need for the commission "to protect" residences from the development of proper commercial uses.

The amendment was carried with Young casting a negative vote. Following that action, the commission by resolution classified motels and hotels in C-2-S zones and C-2-S zones.

NEW FIRM HERE

In approving a parcel split for the Snowdon-Pencer property on Dell Ave., the commission learned that the Deleco Corporation, a check printing company now located in Santa Clara, is planning to build a building on Dell Ave. in about two years. A proposed street through the Snowden-Pencer parcel would be detrimental, Deleco officials explained, to their five-acre property.

PARCEL SPLIT

The commission approved the parcel split for property of Hans E. Hansen at the northeast corner of Sunnyoaks and Kenneth and agreed with the council's action that modified the change of zoning for property off Union Ave. that is planned for a mobile home park. The council felt that the zoning (M-1-S and C-3-S) should follow the master plan for the area, even if the property was under own ownership and only one development was planned. A mobile home park can be in either zone.

POODLE SALON

The request for a use permit to allow a poodle grooming salon at 1690 W. Campbell was submitted by Ira Kirkorian, developer of Kirkwood Plaza where the salon is to be located.

The commissioners were mainly concerned over the amount of noise that would be involved and the usual discussion of decibels ensued. The use permit was approved after being satisfied that Commissioners Ed Pack and Jim Tomlinson would consult with Kirkorian on the noise factors involved.

Plans for a contractor's storage yard submitted by B. F. Stonehocker at 545 Westchester Dr. were approved by the commission. The applicant in a letter explained that it would be used on a temporary basis until he was assured of the final status of the proposed street for the drive-in theater.

Plans for "Ken's House of Pancakes", to be located at 100 W. Hamilton Ave. and submitted by Howard Rutth also received the blessings of the commission.

SIGNS

Signs getting the commission's approval included, a free-standing pole sign for the new Sveden Haus Restaurant at 1760 W. Campbell Ave.; a fascia sign for the new T. G. & Y variety store in the Campbell Plaza Shopping Center and for Rae's Automotive Upholstery Shop at 186 E. Sunnyoaks. In the latter case, however, the commission ruled that the sign had to be placed parallel to the front of the building and mounted at roofline.

Only a light agenda faces the commission when they meet next Monday, Dec. 5. They also met with the city council on Tuesday of this week.

RAIN DROPS

At 8 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 29, the total rainfall recorded in Campbell reached 4.89 inches with .40 inches falling Sunday night and Monday.

During the last week 2.06 inches of rain registered on the Campbell Water Company gauge. Last year at the same date Campbell had received 5.26 inches with a normal precipitation at 2.95 inches.

It can be used where some of the others we know might not exactly be proper.

BEFORE THANKSGIVING we visited Hamilton School along with School Superintendent Neal Royer to photograph a few of the Thanksgiving features the kids had put together.

Although there was no Thanksgiving motif involved in one particular display on the board of Miss Shirley Abe's first grade room, we were impressed by it, as it struck a sympathetic note with us.

It was the "Lost Tooth Club". The display pictured a big tooth on which a face had been drawn plus a top hat and bow tie. All around the big tooth were similar little teeth each representing a class member who had lost a tooth during the year.

We could be a member of that same club because just recently we lost a tooth.

But unlike the members of Miss Abe's class, our loss was a permanent one.

You might say ours is a case of being past the point of no return.

INCIDENTALLY that same day Neal posed for us at the cross-walk off Campbell Ave. at the San Tomas Expressway.

You might recall that the city has agreed to employ a crossing guard at that intersection for the safety of the school children.

The action of the city came after the mothers of school-age youngsters in the area had appealed for the council to "do something about it".

We think it worthy of note that the council did approve the crossing guard, despite the fact that the expressway is under county jurisdiction. Technically the city had to get prior approval from the county for such action.

And another point of interest was that many of the mothers who personally made their appeal to the City Council reside in San Jose. They live in that infamous strip "Cherry Lane annexation" of San Jose of some years back that cut right into the heart of Campbell before any homes were built in the area.

We think that the council used good judgment in placing a crossing guard at that intersection, for until a pedestrian overpass is built it is always going to be a hazardous crossing.

Somehow in our thinking, the question of jurisdiction doesn't seem too important, if just one accident can be prevented.

By the way, some of you may have noticed that in the picture of Neal, he was not standing IN the crosswalk but was outside it.

In order not to undo any of the good work that Police John Morgan and his crew have done, and also to avoid confusion in your home, please, explain to the kiddies that is NOT the proper way to use a crosswalk.

I don't read Izvestia, the Russian newspaper, but an article from it was passed on to me. A Russian gentleman who had lived in the U.S. for 30 years wrote that one thing he considered remarkable about our country was the courtesy and efficiency of women who answer phones in business firms. In Russia, he said, rudeness was the order of the day. Three cheers for our ladies of American business. And, I'd like to add, for all our courteous telephone users.

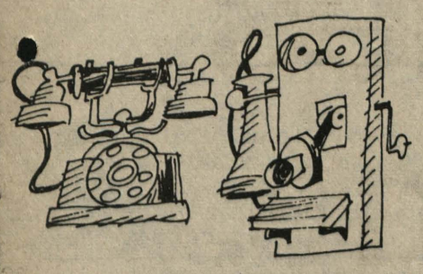
If your decorating dream is to use the antique phone you found in Great Aunt Agatha's attic or the one you found in a local store, the chances are we can hook it up and make it talk for you. We've designed standard operating parts which can be put in many of these decorator phones to assure you good telephone service. Just contact your Campbell Business Office. We'll check your phone and, if the standard parts will fit without modification, we'll install the parts and hook it up. There's a one-time charge of $10, but no extra monthly charge for the decorator phone—only the regular monthly charge for main or extension service.



If the standard parts do not fit your phone, we'll modify it, install the parts and hook it up. In this case, the one-time charge is $25. Although you own and maintain the exterior housing of your decorator phone, we'll continue to maintain the internal telephone parts just as we do with our regular telephones. We have given the dimensions of our standard parts to some manufacturers of "antique" and other decorator phones to help them make phones in which our standard parts will readily fit.

by RUSS LONG

Because the Westmont men's faculty can't swim while playing football, the rained-out KLIV Prunes game will be played this afternoon, Nov. 30, in the Warrior bowl. Admission is $1 without a student body card, and 50¢ with a card.

Sponsored by the Westmont German and Faculty Clubs, all proceeds will go for club activities. Mr. Charles McClellan, German Club advisor, said that proceeds are going toward an activities board for the school... every penny."

Gordon Grabill, Pep Band director, again urges any area pep bands to come and try to show up the Warrior Pep Band, especially the drum section.

Last week I mentioned that the Thanksgiving Day game would be Homecoming for the Warriors. My goof. Since the game was played at Leigh, it was Leigh's Homecoming. However, a Football Queen and Princesses were chosen for the Warriors. Congratulations are in order for Fran Lewis and Lizanne Whitlow, Princesses, and Miss Sue Robinson, Football Queen 1966.

Chosen by the football team, all the girls are active in school affairs, excellent students and all three are members of Westmont's award-winning drill team--The Satin Dolls.

Seniors planning to attend college will be taking the College Entrance Examination Board's Scholastic Aptitude and Achievement Tests Saturday morning and afternoon. Those seniors who are applying for a California State Scholarship must take the SAT Saturday, in order to qualify before the Dec. 15 deadline.

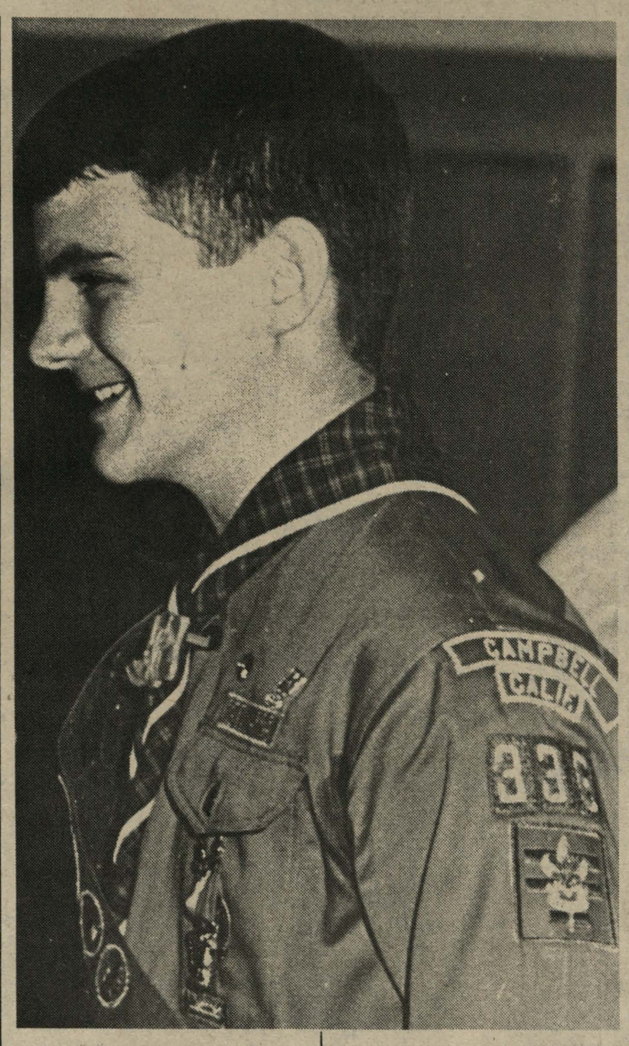
BASKETBALL

Varsity basketball action gets under way Friday night with a non-league home contest with Wilcox. Starting lineup for the Warriors of Westmont (Wilcox' mascot is also the Warrior) will be Bruce Anderson, Chuck Eades, Roy Grillo, Don Melrose, all seniors, and Bill Longo, a junior. Informed sources say that Coach Gary Brinck's five have a good chance of landing in the upper echelons of the league, possibly the number one slot.

Although Westmont led briefly, Leigh won the annual Turkey Day game 19-7. This climaxed a pretty good season for the defending champion Warriors, giving them a three win, three loss, and one tie record.

NEW MARINE

Marine Private Gary L. Talley, son of Mrs. Shirley Sondra of 636 Sunnyoaks Ave., Campbell, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.



EAGLE SCOUT--Randy MacKay, Del Mar High School student, earned his Eagle Scout badge at Court of Honor ceremonies held by Boy Scout Troop 336 of Campbell at Monroe School. Randy is the son of Dr. and Mrs. LaMar S. Mackay, 1124 Greenbriar, San Jose. He has been active in scouting since 1962 and is a member of the Honor Society at Del Mar.

CHRISTMAS DANCE PLANS ARE UNDERWAY:

"La Vielle de Noel" is the theme for this year's Christmas Dance. The "4th Street Exit" will entertain for this semi-formal dance being held Dec. 9.

The admission for this dance is $1 without a Student Body Card and free with the card. The Social Affairs commission has designed original decorations for the affair. The highlight is to be a visit from Santa Claus.

PRESIDENT JOHN SERVED SENATE:

Camden's student body president John Rasmussan spent the past summer in Washington D.C. serving as a page for the senate.

This was John's third consecutive year as a page and he admits that the experience has had a strong influence on on him. John was one of 26 boys who are pages every year.

CHOIR IS WELCOMED AT KIWANIS:

Camden's choir was honored at a Kiwanis club luncheon Nov. 23. Camden's principal, Mr. James Crawford, is program director of the club and so invited the choir to sing.

At the luncheon were two Camden seniors, Tina Clementi, and John Sequeira, who were being honored as Seniors of the Month.

The choir is also scheduled to sing at the Lions club luncheon and the Valley Village luncheon.

G.A.A. NEWS:

As the end of the quarter comes so comes the end of girl's athletic's fall sports. This quarter the girls had their choice of either basketball or hockey. Last year Camden took first place in both sports for the A.G.A. tournament. Camden has held the hockey championship for the past six years.

SLOW DRIVING

So far this year, arrests for slow driving on fast lanes of California's multilane highways have increased by 82 percent.

Campbell Crier

by DAVE TURNER

The 1966 fall sports season finished on a bright note as the Campbell varsity football team's defensive unit scored their only shutout of the year in a 25-0 victory over Los Gatos on Thanksgiving Day.

The Wildcats never seriously threatened as four Buc interceptions stifled Los Gatos' passing attack and a quick hard hitting line kept the running backs in check.

Reigning over the game was 1966 Football Queen Vickie Luoto, flanked by her attendants Karen Carroll, Sue Dilmore, Nancy Dodge, Nora Leckenby, and Andrea Steele.

An 80-yard run with an intercepted screen pass by defensive end Bruce Puterbaugh gave the Campbell Soph-Frosh a 7-0 decision over Los Gatos Tuesday, Nov. 22, and a tie for the WVAL championship. A very stingy defense carried the little Bucs to a 6 and 1 league record, enabling them to share top honors with Del Mar.

The fall sports season saw Campbell tie for another championship, this time in "D" basketball. The lightweight hoopsters also sported a 6 and 1 record to share the league with Leigh. Their big brothers, the "C's", ended league play with a 4 and 3 record to finish third.

Coach Ed Marcos' Cross Country team made a fine showing in the league finals after a disappointing season of dual and triangular meets to take third place in their respective league.

The many hard-working boys who made these teams go will be honored this evening at 6:30 at the annual Fall Sports Banquet in the cafeteria. Guest speaker for the evening will be Harry Anderson, football coach at San Jose State.

PTA News

The Campbell Elementary Home and School Club fund-raising candy sale met with whirlwind success, according to Mrs. Katie Ross, president. All candy was sold out before the intended closing date and some money even had to be refunded on orders taken by some of the student super-salesmen.

Doing the most to satisfy the community's sweet tooth were the following winners:

For the Eighth Grade: Vonda Strong, 1st place, $10; Reed Elder, 2nd place, $5.

Two students tied for Seventh Grade honors: Cherryl Bell, $10; Pam Fry, $10.

There will be a meeting of the club officers of Tuesday evening, Dec. 6, at the school.

One of the major events of the year will be the annual Christmas Program on Thursday, Dec. 15, at 7:30 p.m.

College drama students present three-act comedy

Drama students at West Valley College will present a three-act comedy, "Irregular Verb to Love" on three nights, Dec. 1, 2 and 3, in the West Valley College Auditorium.

Charles R. Hoover, instructor and director of drama at the college, says the rehearsals are going nicely, and it is the feeling of the cast, crew and faculty that the production is going to "go over big."

Admission is $1.50 to the general public and 75¢ to students with student activity cards.

LONG RUN

"Aaron Slick of Pumpkin Creek", the play most often given by amateur players in this country, has been performed about 50,000 times.

Elton Admire, hospital administrator, said the employees contact Campbell school officials, and turn over the baskets to the school nurse for distribution to the families deemed most in need in the area.

This year's program was under the direction of Richard Buck, hospital pharmacist and employee association president, who was assisted by Mrs. Joanna Cava, Mrs. Eleanor Troia and Miss Bonnie G. LaCourt.

1 YEAR AGO

Sixty pints of blood were collected last Thursday, Nov. 11, in the Campbell Jaycee's "Blood for Vietnam Day". The Campbell Jaycees, this week express appreciation to all those who made the drive such a success.

Campbell Planning Commission members sped through a short agenda Monday night and then paid tribute to a fellow commissioner for his many years of faithful service. Homer Hyde, who takes office as a councilman next Monday, was the recipient of the acculades.

The Jaycees will be sending a copy of the Campbell Press to all the servicemen from this area serving with the armed forces in Vietnam. Names and addresses of local men in Vietnam are being accepted at The Campbell Press this week.

5 YEARS AGO

An emergency ordinance establishing the basic conditions for fallout shelters within the city limits and opening the way for the issuance of building permits for them was given approval by the City Council on Monday night. The Council learned first hand also that many residents were concerned over the civil defense problem.

Would the Campbell City Council be interested in "swapping" territory with San Jose so that all of the Monroe School plant would lie within the city limits of San Jose and all of the Rosemary School plant be within the boundaries of Campbell? This was the question presented to the City Council on Monday night. No official action was taken.

Campbell's new Christmas decorations will glow this Christmas season as a result of the City Council's action on Monday night. The council agreed to pay for the electric juice for the decorations.

10 YEARS AGO

Two annexations, one bringing an industrial site into the City of Campbell and one a residential area, were filed with the County Boundaries Commission this week for action by that body at its meeting next Monday. There are approximately 158 acres in the two projects.

Converting the old Campbell Congregational Church on N. Central Ave., into Campbell's first city hall will not cost any more than originally estimated, City Councilmen were told Friday night. But it will be necessary to adjust the breakdown on the original estimate for the overall job.

Faced with a grave financial crisis and with the survival of an active Chamber of Commerce at stake, the directors of the C. of C. acted this week to stave off the "closing of the doors" and by their action hoped it would be possible to continue with the services of Sam Cava as full-time secretary-manager.

15 YEARS AGO

Campbell Union School District this week began advertising for bids on Rosemary School. Cypress is already under construction and Quito is third on the building schedule. If all three schools are completed, next year the district will probably be off double sessions.

Melvin Blue, seaman recruit, was the youngest member of the Orchard City Grange at the time of his enlistment and was the first member to join the service in 26 years.

D.M. Bagby, superintendant of the Cambrian School District, called for funds to construct a Youth Center Building. He said many clubs are unable to accept new members due to a lack of space for meeting places. He asked that all people interested in the welfare of these children contribute funds for this building.

LSD is subject of Youth Forum

"What About LSD?" was the first of a monthly youth forum series at Zion Lutheran Church, 3257 Payne Ave., San Jose recently. A panel of speakers on the subject included Mrs. Jean Aron, research associate with the San Jose Mental Health Department; Dr. Art Rogers, clinical psychologist at San Jose State College; and William Ellison, Santa Clara County juvenile probation officer.

The youth forum, under the sponsorship of the youth committee of the church and the Luther League officers, is open to all young people of high school and college age. The months ahead will include a variety of topical subjects important to young people, with speakers and open discussion.

An invitation is extended to all youth of the community. For more information call 248-8402.

With the bill for the programs passed by the 89th Congress about to come due, every American is beginning to worry about the inevitable increase in his income tax. And considering the trend of government spending and the history of income taxation, he has just cause to worry.

The first income tax was enacted in 1861 to finance the Civil War when incomes over $800 were taxed 3%. In 1872 it was reduced to 2% of incomes in excess of $4000. In 1895 the U.S. Supreme Court ruled an income tax to be unconstitutional and this made the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution necessary.

Our first modern income tax law was ratified in 1913 and authorized a tax of 1% on incomes over $3000 for single persons and $4000 for married couples. That year the government collected $28 1/4 million. But in 1964 individuals and corporations together paid almost $79 billion. This is more than 2000 times the collections of 1914.

In 1932 exemptions were $2500 for a married couple and $1000 for each dependent. Today the individual exemption is $600.

A man with a wife and two children who makes $10,000 per year pays out 30¢ of each dollar he earns in taxes. In the past ten years taxes paid per family more than doubled from $1242 to $2897. Of this amount the federal government gets $1527, the state $381 and local government $989. If this same taxpayer is now thirty years old, he will pay $101,395 in taxes before he retires if no new taxes are enacted. Ten years ago when taxes were 24% of individual income he would have paid a little more than 80,000.

Social Security taxes which began in 1936 with 1% from employer and employee have now been raised to 4.2% on $6600 of income. This amounts to ten times the original tax.

The explanation for this dramatic increase is increased government activity and spending. In 1880 one civilian out of every forty thousand citizens worked for government. Today the ratio is one for every seventy-six. In thirty of the fifty states the United States hires more employees than the states themselves do.

Considering the national debt and all federal statutory obligations, today's taxpayers are in debt $1 trillion, 118 billion. This amounts to $23,000 per family of four or $5750 for each individual. Uncle Sam now has increased his share of all taxes collected to 67.2%. But in spite of this, the federal debt has grown so it is 3 1/2 times larger than the total debt of all the states combined. In fifty years, the national debt has grown from $12 per capita to $1629, an increase of 136 times!

The federal government owns 34% of the land in the United States, buys 23% of what is produced, contracts for 30% of all construction, generates one-fourth of the nation's electric power, and hires one-fourth of the people in the country.

Trends of this kind can't help but cost money--taxpayers' money. This leads to a poor pun, but one which makes an emphatic point: "The one thing you can be sure of in government is debt and taxes!"

Many stories verging on the legendary have been told about this mechanical marvel built by the Stanley brothers, who felt that their car was so much of a testimonial in itself that they never bought an advertisement. And the facts, when separated from the fiction, are almost legends in their own right. OVER THE TOP--"Trumpeting" out the good news of Campbell achieving 103 per cent of goal in this year's United Fund campaign is Richard E. Andis, Campbell business chairman.

Campbell United Fund Drive collects $39,428 for 103

Another victory for Campbell United Fund was celebrated Nov. 15, when it was learned that the local appeal had collected $39,428 for 103 per cent of quota, according to Harry C. Lind, assistant vice president and manager First Valley Bank. Goal set for Campbell this year was $38,136.

Lind explains that the funds raised in this year's United Fund drive will go to help the sick, needy, elderly and troubled youth through such UF agencies as Eastfield, located at 251 Llewelyn Ave., Campbell. Eastfield is a home for emotionally troubled youngsters.

Campbell is one of 11 communities which comprises the Central Area UF Chapter. Each community within that chapter, as well as the other five UF chapters throughout the county, conducts its own campaign and has its own individual goal.

Due to the success of the Campbell appeal and the other cities in the area, the Central Area Chapter raised 106 per cent of its goal for a total collection of $1,511,367.

"It is with the good help of our volunteers as well as the support of our citizens that we were able to surpass our quota in this year's United Fund drive and we can all feel proud of our accomplishment," Lind said.

The entire Santa Clara County campaign, which includes some 19 cities, raised a cumulative total of $2,481,167 for 105 per cent of goal. Lind points out that this is the "best campaign ever conducted by United Fund, and is especially outstanding because this year's total goal of $2.3 million was an increase of nearly 10 per cent above the amount raised in 1959".

JUST CAN'T WAIT--Brian and Robin LeFevre, assist their mother, Mrs. Martin H. LeFevre, 1935 Ashland Way, in hanging their Christmas stockings. The children are looking forward to Yuletide at Montalvo, which is slated for Dec. 2,3 and 4 from 10 until 5 p.m. at Villa Montalvo in Saratoga. In addition to entertainment and refreshments, many beautiful handmade gifts will be on sale at the Festival. More than 5000 visitors are expected to attend this year's fund-raising event. Mrs. LeFevre is a provisional member of Montalvo Service Group which is sponsoring the Festival.

Rogers was noncommittal when asked by Councilman Bill Smeed, an attorney, if he approved the ordinance other than for the "legal" viewpoint.

Councilman Charles Rose then asked if Rogers in light of his vote would accept the monthly salary when it was in effect.

Rogers said that he had always bowed to a majority decision of the council whether it was 3-2; 4-1 or 5-0.

On another council action on adoption of another ordinance just prior to the salary discussion, Rogers also cast the lone negative vote. The ordinance slightly extended the hours that billiard centers can stay open within the city limits.

promise in the allocation of funds has now been submitted to the cities for approval.

But on Monday night, the council by an unanimous vote directed Councilman Bill Smeed, this city's representative on the County Transportation Policy Committee, to hold to Campbell's original recommendation.

In another matter involving the expressway project, Campbell's council unanimously turned down the suggested policy affecting pedestrian expressway overpasses.

Under the proposal, financing of overpasses provided such an overpass could be justified by the county committee, would be limited to 50% from expressway funds. The balance would come from the city concerned or the school district involved.

Campbell's council felt that such a policy was unfair. The need for a pedestrian overpass is generally entirely caused by an expressway being built through the city without the city having any say on the matter, the council maintains.

No major changes in the structure are contemplated except for the installation of partitions. A 600-square foot parking lot at the rear of the property, owned by the Nelsons will also be part of the lease, Hill said.

The retirement from the Campbell retail scene of Milt and Clarence Nelson marks an end to an era that had its beginning in Campbell in 1931 when Clarence, a Campbell High grad of 1927, opened a feed store at First St. and Central Ave. He later moved his business to the building now occupied by the Blue Bell Cafe which he occupied for five years.

In 1937 Clarence purchased the property at Second and Campbell and the firm has operated from that location since then.

In 1943, Milt, also a Campbell High grad ('25) joined his brother in the feed store operation and the brothers have continued to operate the business together, except for about a year when they leased their operation and went to Idaho.

In 1955 the brothers remodeled their building, changing the front and a few years later they added a hardware line to supplement their garden supplies and feed business.

Both the brothers have been active in civic affairs. Both have been long-time members of the Campbell Kiwanis Club, each having served a term as president of that organization. Milt also has been president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce.

Obituaries

JAMES G. BURNS

Funeral services were held this week at Campbell Memorial Chapel for James Garfield Burns, 86, a former Campbell plumber. Burns, a native of Sterling, Massachusetts, died after a long illness in Gilroy. He operated a plumbing business at Third and Campbell Ave. from 1902 until his retirement in 1946.

Burns is survived by three sons, Matthew H. Burns and Robert H. Burns of San Jose and William J. Burns of Alice Ave., Campbell, and three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Byerly of San Martin, Edna Vargas of San Jose and Mrs. Warren Eddlemon of Capitola, also a brother, Dr. Oscar Burns of Massachusetts. Burn's grandsons were pallbearers at the funeral. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge No. 362, F & AM Campbell. Interment was in Los Gatos Memorial Park.

POSTER CONTEST--Fire Chief George Maxwell holds up one of the winning posters in Campbell Fire Department's annual Fire Prevention Poster contest at St. Lucy's School.

Lot splits get council okay in subdivisions

Three tentative subdivisions, involving lot-splits, were given City Council approval Monday night.

But, in granting approval, some concern was expressed over whether the zoning restrictions now is effect would hold when the property was sold off. All had gained the previous approval of the Planning Commission.

Councilman Homer Hyde abstained from approving the plan for splitting the Snowden-Pencer property on Dell Ave. He said he did not like the "panhandle" that was indicated for access to Dell Ave.

Two other subdivisions gaining approval involved a three-lot split for property owned by Hans E. Hansen at Sunnyoaks and Kenneth and a five-lot split for Topaz Builders at San Tomas and Hacienda. Ray Snyder, vice-president of Topaz, present at the meeting told the council that tight money conditions made it necessary for his company to divide holdings in order to be able to get proper financing.

Because of the absence of City Attorney Joe Bonacina (excused because of his 38th wedding anniversary) the council could not get a firm legal ruling on whether the zoning restrictions would be passed on to any new owners.

But it was felt that such would be the case and approval was granted.

The council also gave first reading to the zone change for property off Union Ave. planned for a mobile home park which had been referred to the Planning Commission for modification from the original zoning. The new zoning change would follow the McGlincey Lane master plan.

First reading was also given the zone change for property owned by Fred Sahadi on Union Ave. adjacent to the apartments owned by him.

The zone change was necessary to allow additional apartments.

Leigh takes Westmont 19-7 to cinch WVAL top in holiday game

Leigh charged from behind for two fourth-quarter touchdowns Thanksgiving Day to down defending champion Westmont 19-7 before some 7000 standing-room-only fans at Leigh.

As it turned out, the Longhorns would have won the title even had they lost, since second-place Saratoga was tied by Blackford 21-21.

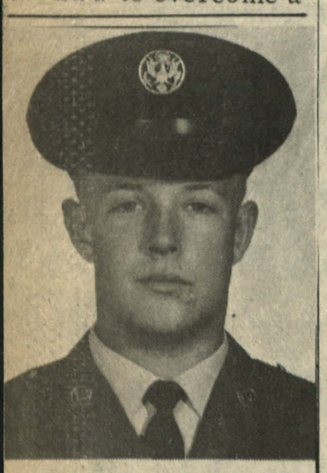
Although Leigh completely controlled play in the first half and most of the second half, it had to overcome a fired-up Warrior team in the fourth quarter. Westmont had taken a 7-6 lead with 3:18 remaining in the third period.

Westmont's only score came on a one-yard plunge by Harry Wright to climax a 63-yard drive that consumed 15 plays. Key play in the march was a 25-yard pass on third down from Wiles to Roy Grillo for a first down on the Longhorn four.

Andy Anderson, a left-footed foreign exchange student from Sweden booted the extra point soccer style for a 7-6 lead.

The aroused Warriors allowed only one net yard in four of Leigh's next five scrimmage plays and also caused a fumble the Longhorns managed to get back, and it looked like the tide had turned in Westmont's favor.

But Leigh's passing attack got into gear and two TD's came in the final period to make the final score 19-7.



TECHNICIAN--Airman Harold F. Hacke Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Hacke Sr., of 1485 E. Campbell Ave., Campbell, has been selected for technical training at Lowry AFB, Colo., as a U.S. Air Force aircraft weapons systems specialist.

The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Airman Hacke, a graduate of Del Mar High School, attended West Valley College.

Del Mar brings home 12-6 win over Camden

Because a defense refused to give ground on important plays, Del Mar's Dons pulled out a 12-6 victory over Camden Thursday on the loser's field.

Ace Del Mar quarterback Dennis Petty was out of action due to a minor concussion suffered in last week's 13-13 tie with Westmont, and this made the game more of a defensive battle than was expected.

The Del Mar win gave the Dons a final record of 4-3-2, put Camden at 2-7, and gave Del Mar its second victory in eight games of the annual Thanksgiving Day rivalry. Del Mar finished 2-3-2 in the West Valley League, while Camden ends 0-7 in the league.

The game got off to a slow start as neither team could penetrate the opponent's 30 until the opening moments of the second period.

On the first play of the second quarter Cougar defensive back Tom Huddon picked off a Gerry Bush pass on the Del Mar 23, and four plays later Kurt Daniels smashed his way in from the eight-yard line to give Camden a short-lived lead at 6-0.

Del Mar took the ensuing kickoff 71 yards in 11 plays, with Bush scampering the last four yards for the score. Key plays in the march were a 20-yard pass from Bush to end Bob Serpa that put the ball on the Cougar 23, and an 11-yard jaunt by Bush that gave the Dons first and goal on the five.

Following that score, which came with 5:15 remaining in the half, the second period had little to offer fans of the offense.

The second half was purely a defensive contest, although Camden did get over the goal once but the officials ruled Bill Butler was out of bounds when he caught an apparent TD pass.

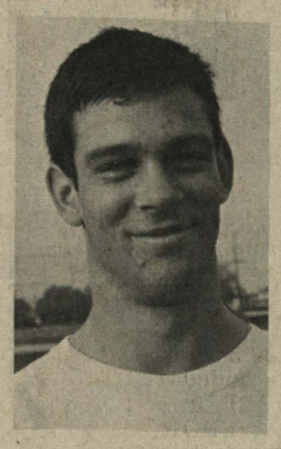
Campbell dumps Los Gatos 25-0 in rival classic

Campbell's 155-pound halfback Chuck Hawthorne, sparked a well-executed Buccaneer attack Thanksgiving Day as the Bucs dumped Los Gatos 25-0 in the 33rd renewal of their rivalry.

Hawthorne scored two touchdowns and piled up 129 yards on the ground in 26 carries for Campbell.

The win brought the Bucs closer to evening up the series with Los Gatos. The 'Cats still hold a commanding 20-12-1 margin.

Los Gatos could only complete four passes for 36 yards plus having three intercepted, never mounted a serious scoring threat.



CHUCK HAWTHORNE

The closest the Wildcats could come to the Buc goal was the 19 where the hosts took the ball over on downs in the second period.

The Buc signal caller Kent McLain was mixing in some accurate passing with Campbell's rushing game.

Except for short moments of Los Gatos luster, it was all Campbell. The Bucs roared 57 yards in nine plays after the opening kick-off with Hawthorne who accounted for 49 of the yards, cutting through a wide hole at left tackle for the score on a 15-yard run.

After forcing Los Gatos to punt twice, Campbell rolled 49 yards for another score seconds before the end of the first quarter. A 23-yard shot from McLain to Stan Hedegard set up the tally on the 'Cat six. On a fourth down situation on the four, McLain hit Soren Hansen for the TD as he was falling out of the end zone.

Twelve minutes later Campbell put the game out of the reach of the bogged-down visitors.

Hawthorne again played a key role in the drive peeling off a 22-yard run to the Los Gatos 28. Five plays later, the Bucs had a fourth and 16 situation on the Wildcat 18 and McLain fired a strike to John Lobrovich for the score.

Late in the third period the Bucs capped the offensive show with Hawthorne scoring from one yard out despite a body tackle that sent him flying into the air. The TD finished off a 35-yard drive in which a 21-yard hookup from McLain to Hedegard was the highlight.

Hawthorne went into the game just two points behind Saratoga's Boese in the WVAL scoring race, 48-50, and ended the season three points behind as Boese scored two touchdowns and an extra point Thursday.

Campbell closed the league campaign with a 5-2 record. The play of Gary Tomasso, Mike Clark, Al Shimizu and Dennis Craig during the game was also outstanding.

Letters to the Editor

JACK FISCHER SCHOOL

Dear Editor:

After reading Mr. St. Germaine's letter, I find I must agree with him regarding the renaming of San Tomas School after Jack Fischer.

After having a close relative go through several operations while a pupil at San Tomas School, our family saw Jack Fischer, humanitarian, at work. Rain or shine, busy schedule or not, to mention. Let's not waste any more time. Let's do something for a change instead of just talking about it. San Tomas School was truly Jack visited him every day, each operation.

After recovery Jack got this young boy tickets to the baseball game at Candlestick Park knowing the boy loved baseball.

There are other examples too numerous Jack Fischer's school and should be named as such. Let's give the continuing staff at San Tomas School a living remembrance of their greatly esteemed principal.

Very truly yours,
Barbara and Joe Williams.

RENAMING SCHOOL

Dear Mr. Vierhus,

We have lived in the Campbell School District for sixteen years and have had our three children go through San Tomas School while Jack Fischer was principal. We would like to add our names to the many who are working toward renaming the school so it is officially Jack C. Fischer School.

We feel there is no percentage in waiting for sentiment to recede because where Jack Fischer was concerned there will be sentiment involved as long as any of his students or their parents are around. We worked quite often with Jack and were always pleased by the fact that he had time for the problems of his students, sometimes long after they had gone on to other schools, perhaps even college.

We feel that the renaming of San Tomas School is a fitting memorial to a remarkable man who did so much for the children and parents of the area.

Sincerely,
ROBERT A. JANES
ROBERTA JANES

We would like to publicly thank the members of the Campbell City Council for their unanimous vote to provide an adult crossing guard at the hazardous Campbell Ave.-San Tomas Expressway intersection.

We are sure we speak for all the parents of children who use these streets in expressing our deep gratitude to the Council and City Staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bothman
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sanders

County committee to meet with rapid transit group

Representatives of the Santa Clara County Transportation Policy Committee and the Bay Area Rapid Transit District (BART) will meet jointly tonight, Nov. 30.

The meeting is the first on a policy level between the two groups and will be primarily devoted to a progress report on the BART system and a discussion of its implications for Santa Clara County.

Because of the scope of the topic, policy committee chairman Robert T. Maynard has also invited county legislative representatives and other local community leaders.

B.R. Stokes, general manager of BART, will present a report indicating cost and jurisdictional factors related to the Bay Area system. BART President Adrien J. Falk will also be on hand to describe the project.

According to Paul Yarborough, study manager for the committee, a decision must be made within two years if the County is to have mass transportation.

Further, he said, the issue of how the County will coordinate its system with regional plans of BART and West Bay Rapid Transit Authority (WBRT) must be resolved.

The Transportation Policy Committee has recently held a similar meeting with directors and key staff of WBRT to discuss mutual planning problems.

By fall 1967, Yarborough expects to present the committee with several broad, alternate courses of action to meet county transportation needs.

By January, 1968 the committee, which includes a representative from each city in the county, will select one of these alternatives for further refinement by staff and consultants. At this time, costs, land use, timing, legal procedures, and engineering of the program will be worked out in more detail. A final report is anticipated by the end of 1968.

County Sanitation District report shows 4 % unit gain

County Sanitation District No. 4 of Santa Clara County, recapped its 1965-66 Fiscal Year in its annual report just released. Copies of the report may be obtained at the District office, 100 E. Sunnyoaks Ave., Campbell.

The district area remained basically the same; however, the increase in growth is best measured by the number of "units" connected to its sewer system, "unit" being one residence or one apartment. The number of units connected during the year increased by 4%.

The West Valley population appears to be going up into multiple dwellings faster than spreading out. Approximately a million dollars of supplemental trunk sewer construction was completed during the year to keep pace with the population growth.

As of Sept., 1966, County Sanitation District No. 4 had completed approximately 50 per cent of the capital projects to be financed by a 7.5 million dollar bond issue approved by district voters in March, 1965.

Actual program costs and estimates of the cost of remaining work indicate that costs will exceed estimates by only $64,000, less than one per cent of the bond issues.

During the fiscal year, the district invested its idle construction and operating funds and earned $24,472, a 4.2% average yield from investments.

District inspectors continued a program of surveying houses which are below a certain point in the street which would allow sewage to back into the house in the event of an accidental main sewer stoppage. To date, inspectors have checked 5000 dwellings, representing 30% of total district connections. Individual property owners are alerted when their house plumbing does not have adequate backflow protective devices.

County Sanitation District No. 4 maintains 322 miles of trunk, main and lateral, sewers with a department consisting of nine men, a ratio of one man per 36 miles of sewer.

A preventative maintenance program, as opposed to a curative program, is used by the district which has practically eliminated main sewer stoppages and the attendant overflow of sewage into streets.

Over 30 tons of sewer stopping debris were removed from the sewer system last year. The district has elected to maintain lateral sewers up to each owner's property line and has personnel on 24-hour call for this purpose. Each property owner pays approximately 60 cents a year for this service when required.

BUSINESS NEWS

NEWS ABOUT LOCAL BUSINESSES, AND BUSINESS PEOPLE

ANOTHER BRISK MOVEMENT--The popular music store opposite the Campbell Shopping Center on Winchester Blvd., has retained its name, "Allegro Music", but has made a brisk movement in management. Kent Perkins has been named Manager, and announced a sale of fine instruments in celebration of his appointment. The Allegro Music Store at 1784 Winchester Blvd., Campbell, is dominantly marked by a huge sign fronting the store, and proclaiming its musical signature, but the interior, as shown partially in the above photo, is a guitarists dream. You can really "pick" your musical instrument here!

OUR CITY SHARES ITS BEAUTY'--"Miss Campbell" Shari Dahl, is shown crowning Patricia Wilkerson, of San Jose, as "Junior Miss of San Jose" at a Jaycee sponsored pageant held Nov. 21, 1966 at Frontier Village Amusement Park. Miss Dahl, the lovely young lady who features so prominently at ribbon-cutting ceremonies and grand opening events of our own area, is much in demand for other community events, as is evidenced by the above photo. Needless to say, Miss Campbell is a "living dahl"!

A COUPLE OF CUT-UPS--John Painter, on the right, and his partner, Joe Le Duc, on the left, have opened the Plaza Barbershop at 2445 N. Winchester Blvd., in the newest addition to Campbell Plaza at Budd and Winchester...near the Safeway Store...and invited us over to "see for ourselves". The invitation is extended to the readers of this newspaper by both men, and "Le Duc" (The Duke to us) made it known that there will be SIX CHAIRS waiting for customers...fast service...unlimited! From crew-cuts to beatle trims...Prices? Well, a haircut is cheaper than a dog-license!

Grass Roots

SET YOUR COMMUNITY ON FIRE!

There was a time when Californians trekked clear across the continent to enjoy the flaming beauty of fall color. This is going out of style thanks to a colorful array of shrubs and trees with showy berries and foliage.

Before the immigration of fall-colorful plants from other lands, our native Toyon or "Christmas Berry" held court all by itself. But now we have the pistacia and ginkgo from Asia, the hawthornes from Europe and the liquidambar and liriodendron from our own South and East.

All have adapted themselves beautifully to our California climate and have become favored trees for street and garden planting. Some have been improved through selection to become "native sons" of renown in the horticultural world.

GINKGO TREE

Take the ginkgo for example. Trees grown from seedlings produced specimens of ungainly shape and occasionally smelly fruits. A perfect male specimen was discovered by the Saratoga Horticultural Foundation and given the name 'Autumn Gold'. Its golden yellow foliage in fall is a sight to behold! There is hardly anything to compare with it outside California. Be sure you ask for 'Autumn Gold'.

The liquidambars vary greatly in their leaf patterns and coloration. A variety with pure amber foliage was selected for its outstanding form, leaf pattern and color--named 'Palo Alto'. It has become widely used for street and highway planting. Other improved forms of fall color trees will appear as new ways are found to propagate distinguished specimens asexually.

CHINESE PISTACIA

The Chinese Pistacia is a non-fruiting form that was introduced to California about 50 years ago at the Chico Plant Introduction Gardens. At first, it was only known in the Sacramento Valley, but the memory of its startling flaming red colors, seen for miles, stayed with travelers when they returned home. It was not long before specimens could be seen throughout the state.

Westhills Club meets tonight

Westhills Service Club will meet Wednesday night, Nov. 30, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lewis Haller. This meeting will feature a Christmas craft display by Kathy Sgarlato.
